Dear Siblings in Christ,

I've done it again. I've preached a bunch of times about the time I missed a burial service for a member's father in my first call. How I failed and there was absolutely nothing I could do to fix the situation accept take accountability for my mistake and validate for the family that they deserved so much better than what I had offered (or not offered) them and to contritely and sincerely apologize.

Well, this last Saturday, I was supposed to be the Dean that installed a new pastor in our area as she begins her call at a local Lutheran congregation. I showed up thinking I had ten minutes to quickly robe and get my leader's guide. I wasn't presiding over the service and I wasn't preaching but I did have a part to play in actually installing this new pastor. I arrived and heard the sound of chanting in the sanctuary. Are they having a rehearsal? A colleague of mine was standing outside, rocking her three-month-old baby and I asked, "What is happening?"

She said, "We're starting communion."

"What time did this service start?!" I asked. "It started at three!" It was ten minutes to four.

I was confronted again by the fact that I am wildly imperfect. That despite my best attempts and efforts, I fail. Not once, not twice, but over and over again.

I stood in the back of the church, frustrated and embarrassed. But then it was time for communion and while I really wanted to just turn on my heels and leave, I stayed and walked up and received the body and blood of Jesus and heard again that what God wants is actually our wildly imperfect selves...that's it. Don't wait until you get it right, just show up, mistakes and all. Don't marinate in your shame for too long. Apologize when necessary and then let God's mercy do its thing.

We're living through hard times and much is required of us as people who follow Jesus in these days. There is more to be done than any one person can possibly do as our parents age or our children grow, as our nation moves forward in fits and starts through a period of great struggle, as we navigate illness and change and all manner of things.

Hear this and hear it clearly. You are not required to move through this time with any amount of perfection. You are permitted to show up wildly imperfect...to church, to your friends, to your family, to your nation. Just do the hard thing of showing up in the first place and then my dear ones, let God's mercy take it from there.

I look forward to showing up with you as we host Interfaith Shelter and the folks who will come to us for rest and shelter. I look forward to joining with you in song and prayer in worship on Sundays. I look forward to collecting non-perishable food and funds for the Souper Bowl of Caring on Feb. 8 (Go Seahawks!) to feed our food-insecure neighbors through Loaves and Fishes/OBEF. Let's show up...together...imperfectly, letting God's mercy and grace take us from there!

Peace,
Pastor Bekki

MUSIC NOTES

Most of us love Christmas and all the celebration and preparation that comes with the arrival of December. But at the same time, the dark evenings and mornings (often accompanied by a lack of sunlight in the day) can bring on a dip in our mental health, with feelings of lethargy and low motivation or worse. And the period after New Year's Eve until Spring can be even harder with no holiday activities and energy. Additionally, times of turmoil and uncertainty threaten to overwhelm us; times such as these in this country. Trapped in the darkness we wonder when—if!—we shall see light again!

A wonderful hymn for times like this is “Rise, Shine, You People!” This hymn reminds us that Christ comes to those surrounded by darkness, sin and death not to give the generic grace of God, but to bear the darkness we face each day. It reminds us of what our response to such times should be: to take the bushel off our little light!

Come, celebrate; your banners high unfurling, your songs and prayers against the darkness hurling. To all the world go out and tell the story of Jesus' glory. Tell how the Father sent the Son to save us. Tell of the Son, who life and freedom gave us. Tell how the Spirit calls from ev'ry nation God's new creation.

Do not be discouraged into hiding your light or your conviction, into waiting for the sun to return or the days to grow long. In spite of the circumstances, we are God's beloved people today and forever. Rise, shine! If you aren't familiar with this hymn you can hear and follow the words here:

Donations from Traditional IRA at age 70 ½ even before the required age 73

You can start giving charitable donations from your IRA, called a Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD), at age 70½, even though your Required Minimum Distributions (RMDs) don't start until age 73 (or 75 if born in 1960 or later), allowing you to transfer up to $108,000 (per person, per year) directly to a charity tax-free, which counts towards your RMD once you're required to take them.

Key Details for Qualified Charitable Distributions (QCDs):

- Age Requirement: You must be 70½ or older at the time of the distribution.
- Source: Must come from an eligible Traditional IRA (not SEP or SIMPLE IRAs).
- Direct Transfer: The money must go directly from your IRA custodian to the qualified charity (a 501(c)(3) organization).
- Tax Benefit: The distribution is excluded from your taxable income, reducing your Adjusted Gross Income (AGI).
- RMD Credit: Once you are required to take RMDs (starting at age 73), QCDs can satisfy all or part of your RMD for that year.
- Annual Limit: Up to $108,000 per individual, per year (as of late 2025).

Why it's beneficial:

This strategy lets you support charities while reducing your taxable income, potentially lowering your Medicare premiums and tax bracket, without waiting until you're forced to take RMDs.

Soup-er Bowl 2026

It's Back! On Super Bowl Sunday, February 8, our Confirmation youth are sponsoring a one-day food drive for our local food pantry, Loaves & Fishes.

Bring a non-perishable food item (no cream soups) or cash/check donation and "vote" for your favored team!

Each food item or dollar equals one point; we'll tally the teams at the end of Fellowship Hour and predict the winner—although, the real winners are those in need in our community.

Palms

If you saved your Palm Sunday palm branches from last year, it's time to bring them back to church. Place them in the basket in the Fellowship Hall by Sunday, February 15 when our confirmation class will assist in making the ashes for Ash Wednesday.

WORSHIP TEAM NEWS

Jazz Mass

February 15 at 9:30 a.m.

Join your friends & family at St. Peter's by the Sea for our 4th annual Jazz Mass on The Transfiguration of Our Lord Sunday.

Ash Wednesday

February 18 at 7:00 p.m.

We begin our Lenten season on Ash Wednesday with a smudge of ash on our forehead and a call to repent in our heart. We desire to make this a time to be with the Lord in a special way, with prayer, fasting and almsgiving. It is a time to reflect on our baptism and to follow Jesus on his way to Jerusalem, to Golgotha, and to the final victory over death through the cross and resurrection.

Wednesdays in Lent:

6:00-7:00 Soup Supper

There will be sign-up sheets for soup, salad, and bread on the bulletin board! Come and enjoy a meal together!

7:00-7:30 Prayer: For the Healing of the Nations
Gather around the cross for prayer, singing, and lighting candles as we pray together for the needs of the world this Lent.

BUILDING STEERING UPDATES

Right now the team is working with the architect to fine tune an architectural concept before we take that drawing to a contractor to give us a rough estimate of magnitude which would tell us the rough cost of a project at this scale. Once we have this information, we will know whether we need to scale back or proceed, at which point we will have more information to share with you.

In the meantime, you will find in the back of the sanctuary, near the main entrance, holes in the drywall surrounding one of the pillars. You can look inside and see that the pillar is wood and is smaller than the drywall. There is painters tape on the drywall to show you the side of the pillar inside.

Thank you for your patience as we continue the process.

IN MEMORIUM

Christian sympathy is extended to the family and friends of Jane H. who died in December.

Jane was a member of St. Peter's by the Sea since moving to Ocean Beach in 1981. She served St. Peter's in many capacities over the years, including sharing her talents as a nurse and chairing our Health & Wellness Team when it first began. A memorial service was held in Jane's hometown of Selma, CA.

THANK YOUs

Dear St. Peter's Congregation,

Thank you so much for your support! It made it possible for me to represent the U.S. in an international softball tournament where I got to play in Cuba against their junior national team. The trip was an incredible experience where I not only had an amazing time, but learned so much. It would not have been possible without your donations and support, which I am extremely grateful for. Thank you!
